USCLE GLEN'S GLORY.

De summat time's departin'
An' de fall am comin' on,
An' de punkin's turnin' yellin'
Twixt de rows of standin' corn:
De pawpaws an' de 'emmons
An' a waddin' fur a fro,
An' when dey 'gin a drappin'
Why de possum he'll be boss.

Den he's gittin' fat an' sassy,
An' he's grinnin' dar at me
When I spies him in de moonshine
Up de ole persimmon tree:
Den I skins up 'mong de branches
An' I climbs out on de limb,
An' I makes him lose his tail-holt
So de dogs kin git at him.

Hit am mighty nice in summat,
When de milyun's ripe an' red,
To eat 'em by de moonlight
When de white folks gone to bed:
But dar's glory in de kitchen
When de fros' begins to fall,
Wid de taters an' de gravy,
An' de possum boss ob all.

Dar's de chicken an' de rabbit—
Dey both am mighty fine,
An' I loves de watermilum
Plum up into de rine:
But when I goes to glory,
Wid my happiness increased,
Hit'll be bekaize I find up dar
A 'possum fer de feast.

The Leading Paper

THE LEADER IN CIRCULATION!
THE LEADER IN NEWS!
THE LEADER IN PATRONAGE!

THREE essentials that go to constitute the "Leading Local Paper." THE LEDGER leads in all, and is the favorite paper of the people.

"Come in and see us run off our editions. Our subscription list is open to the inspection of our advertisers."

The War is over,
Vacation is over,
And now for business.
You can get that most surely by advertising in THE LEDGER.

Grayson is to have a telephone line to Riverton and Greenup.

The Fourth Kentucky Regiment is now in camp at Camp Shipp, one mile from Anniston, Ala.

That is not the new steen-story hotel building going up at Second and Sutton; it's merely a Buffalo Billboard. The hotel will come later—very much later.

A mail carrier up to Elliott rode twenty miles the other day before he found out that he left the pouches hanging on the fence in front of the Postoffice.

Don't fill your coalhouse with poor Pomeroy Coal when you can get Black Band, Chesapeake or Semi-cannel Coal at the same price at William Davis's Coal Yard, near Limestone Mills.

When you want Watch and Diamond bargains Murphy, the Jeweler, is better prepared to give you bargains than elsewhere. See his bargains. An elegant gold filled Watch worth $30, my price $11. Others would sell them at this price if they could. Buying a large stock and paying cash enables me to offer them at this price.

Crushed Peaches and Cream only 5 cents at Chenoweth's Soda Fountain.

James R. Garrison and Fannie Soward, colored, were married Saturday.

Jerome Weitzel, proprietor of the Capital Hotel, died at Frankfort Saturday.

You'll never know what a good five cent Cigar is till you smoke the White Flyer.

The best grades Kanawha and Semi-Cannel Coal for less money than you pay for Pomeroy at William Davis's Coal Yard near Limestone Mills.

The Phoenix Hotel Company at Lexington is making a decided improvement in the hotel, in the building of a handsome ballroom in the rear of the ordinary.

Mr. John H. Murray, for the past several years Manager for Gilmore & Co., resigned the position Saturday. Mr. Murray is one of the best workmen in his line. He will remain here.

Mrs. J. M. Redden will move to the house recently purchased from the Trustees of the James Rice Fund, and her son-in-law, Mr. Peter Lutz, will take charge of the Redden Hotel.

Mrs. George Schwartz and daughter, Miss Emma, will represent Friendship Lodge No. 43 of this city in the Rebekah Assembly at Louisville this week. They left yesterday for that city.

Mr. Augustus Jervais, aged 45, of Detroit, Mich., and Miss Emma LaMasters, aged 40, of Ironton, O., were married at the County Clerk's office Saturday by His Honor Judge C. D. Newell.

William F. Schooler, formerly Editor of The Morehead Advance, has, through the influence of Congressman S. J. Fugh, secured a position in the Government Printing Office at Washington City.

Dr. W. S. Dickson of Portsmouth claims to have discovered a process by which the human race can be rendered immune against the most violent and insidious blood disease known to medical science.

Truth wears well. People have learned that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are reliable little pills for regulating the bowels, curing constipation and sick headache. They don't gripe. Henry W. Ray, adjoining Postoffice.

The Langdon Grocery Company on last Thursday and Friday spent about $10 for advertising. On Saturday they sold 275 packages of the goods advertised at $1 each, and the supply ran out long before closing hours. The only way to keep up with the procession is to advertise what you have to sell.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has the largest sale of any Salve in the world. This fact and its merit has led dishonest people to attempt to counterfeit it. Look out for the man who attempts to deceive you when you call for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great pile cure. Henry W. Ray, adjoining Postoffice.

Coming in on the L. and N. last night a crowd of boozey up-the-road toughs attacked Harry Agnew, one of the Mayaville soldier boys, and pounded him up considerably. Harry, however, got in a few jibes with his pocket-knife. The toughs got off near Carlisle. On the same train John Setters, Jim Burger and Fred Bode, all soldiers, got into a drunken row in which the two latter got the worst of it, Setters using a knife with telling effect.

There were only 23 tickets sold here for yesterday's excursion to Lexington, but the train was crowded before it got there.

Wedding Presents galore at Murphy's. Call and see how cheap he is offering his line of Cut Glass, Sterling Silver goods, Bronzes, Lamps, Tables, etc.

The ten-year-old daughter of Frank Prather, near Morehead, attempted to climb into a school house window to get her books, which she had forgotten. The window fell on her neck and strangled her to death.

The Seventy-fourth Annual Session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., opens in Boston today. It will last about ten days. Hon. William H. Cox, Grand Representative, is in attendance from this city.

At Eminence Circuit Judge Carroll handed down a decision that no Building and Loan Association has the right to make an assignment. He set aside the assignment of the Eminence Building and Loan Association and ordered the case referred to the receiver of the Court.

The Twelfth Infantry, U. S. A., passed West yesterday over the C. and O. The train was in three sections. The boys were billed through to Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis. Lieutenant James Harbeson, an officer of this Regiment, stopped off and went to Flemingsburg to visit his father, Judge James P. Harbeson.

Dr. H. K. Adamson returned Saturday from New York, where he went to see Prof. Henry Lloyd, who is very ill there. He reports him improving, however, with prospects of an early recovery. He reports, also, that during his absence he was royally entertained, and among the pleasant things he ate five "club" dinners in four days.

The Kentucky Colonial Dames have set to work to organize county clubs to work for an appropriation for the erection of new State Capitol Buildings at Frankfort, under the leadership of Frankfort women. The work of the ladies will be the organization of each county seat of a local club composed of the best and most influential women of the county. The county boards will secure petitions to present to members of the Legislature, and otherwise assist in securing an appropriation.

NARROW ESCAPES.

A Runaway Horse Dashes Into a Crowd of Joyous Children.

Shortly after 6 o'clock last evening a number of children were playing on the sidewalk in front of their homes on Forest avenue.

Among them were Gladys Stratton, aged 6, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. T. B. Stratton; Stanley Schroeder, aged 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Schroeder; and Iva Duke Graham, aged 11, daughter of Mrs. Salie Graham.

Mr. Chappell and his sister were passing in a buggy when the horse frightened, kicked himself loose from the vehicle, and dashed into the crowd of children, knocking several down and continuing to run some distance westward.

The cries of the children soon brought assistance, when it was found that Gladys Stratton had a fracture of the right arm, besides a number of severe bruises about the face; Stanley Schroeder had a cut on the left side of the forehead, while Iva Duke Graham sustained a scalp wound just above the center of the forehead and some bruises on the hip.

It was miraculous that they escaped more serious injury.

Five physicians were soon on the scene, the hurts were dressed and the little folks are doing well.

DIED AT ST. PAUL.

Mrs. Julia S. Chenoweth of This City Departs This Life Yesterday.

Mrs. Julia S. Chenoweth died yesterday morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Victor C. Gilman, at St. Paul, Minn., aged 78.

She was a native of this city, a daughter of Mr. Christian Shultz, who was in his day the leading business man and citizen of Mayaville, and it was always her pride to claim this as her home.

Mrs. Chenoweth was twice married, Mr. C. Shultz Leach of Chattanooga being a son by the first marriage, and Mr. Henry P. Chenoweth of this city and Mrs. V. C. Gilman of St. Paul children of the second.

Major Thomas J. Chenoweth and Mrs. Laura C. Dimmitt of this city and Dr. W. J. Chenoweth of Decatur, Ill., are step-children.

She was a noble Christian woman, and a pure life and good deeds are her most enduring monument.

The remains will reach here tonight and be taken to the residence of Mr. Robert A. Cochran, from whence the funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon, with services by the Rev. J. C. Molloy of the Central Presbyterian Church, assisted by the Rev. John Barbour of the First Presbyterian Church.

We're Glad To See You

At all times, whether you expect to buy or not. Just come right in, make yourself "to home" and see everything we have.

Wedding Presents. Rich Cut Glass; nothing nicer or more appreciated; beautiful little pieces from $2 50 up.

Sterling Silver. The old stand-by; lasts a lifetime and then goes to the next generation. We're sure to save you money on silver.

Luck Buttons. See our line before buying; nice new line not shown elsewhere.

Bracelets, Souvenir Hearts, Neck Chains, Scarf Pins, Silver Novelties, Silk Umbrellas, Pocket Books and a thousand other useful and pretty articles we would consider it a pleasure to show you.

BALLENGER, Jeweler.

Don't forget that Ray's Rainbow Paint is guaranteed at Postoffice Drugstore.

At Baltimore Saturday Captain McGann drove out a home run when the bases were full of Orioles, thus winning the game from Cleveland.

C. B. Ryan, Assistant General Passenger Agent of the C. and O., gave Miss Grace Burgess a ticket from Dover to Richmond, Va., in place of one which she had purchased and left in a satchel lost on the train when she got off at Dover a week or so ago.

More than twenty million free samples of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve have been distributed by the manufacturers. What better proof of their confidence in its merits do you want? It cures piles, burns, scalds, sores, in the shortest space of time. Henry W. Ray, adjoining Postoffice.

The agreed case to test the constitutionality of the Election Law will come up before Judge Cantrill for argument this month at Frankfort. The Republicans have decided to enter into the case, and further agreed facts will be submitted, and the law bitterly contested. The case will be taken to the Court of Appeals and decided before the November election.

New Coal Firm.

Pearce & Co. will sell 50,000 bushels clean Pomeroy Coal at 64 cents cash, delivered anywhere in the city of Mayaville. Now is the time to fill your coalhouse.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. J. M. Redden and family extend sincere thanks to Wyandotte Tribe No. 3, I. O. E. M., and the Oddfellows of Mayaville and to DeKalb Lodge No. 138 and the Redmen of Manchester, O., for their kind sympathy and benevolence shown our husband and father during his sickness and death; also our sincere thanks to Dr. Pickett, Mr. B. F. Powers, Dr. J. C. Molloy and choir and the community in general.

MRS. J. M. REDDEN AND FAMILY.

SUES FOR $10,000.

Miss Maria Owens Seeks Damages For the Loss of an Eye.

Some months ago Miss Maria, eleven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Owens, was bitten in the eye by a dog belonging to Mrs. Mary Wells, widow of the late Thomas Wells the Banker.

The child was taken to Cincinnati, but despite the most skillful treatment the sight of the eye was destroyed.

On Saturday suit was filed in the Mason Circuit Court in behalf of Miss Owens against Mrs. Wells for the sum named.

MASONIC MEETING.

Take Due Notice Thereof and Govern Yourselves Accordingly.

Regular meeting Mayaville Chapter No. 9, R. A. M., this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Annual election of officers. A full attendance is urged.

A. H. THOMPSON, R. P. R. P. Jenkins, Secretary.

WE MAKE IT A POINT

To have our best lines in all our departments come in the middle of August. In a few days many of our young friends will resume their studies—some at home, others in foreign educational institutes. It has always been our pride to send the boys well dressed. No matter what town or city they go to Hechinger's clothes wearers are the proper dressed youngsters. For this fall we made greater efforts than ever to supply ourselves, and consequently you, with the noblest clothing that fashion subscribes. Our fall Suits and Overcoats are the highest types of merchant tailoring art. Our stock represents the production of the acknowledged leading houses in the country. Our line of Shirts, Underwear, Hats, Ties, etc., is simply great. If the young miss needs a nice trunk we can supply you.

SHOES!

The results in our Shoe Department, though not a year old, are gratifying to us and fully as much to our shoe patrons. "The most comfortable pair of shoes I've worn for years" is the universal expression of those that wear them. Our $2, $2 50 and $3 Smith & Stoughton French Calf Common Sense Shoes are the best in the market. Every pair we sell is made for us and warranted to give satisfaction. Money refunded if they don't. Our high-class shoes, such as Viel Kid, Russian Calf, Patent Leather, Cordovan, &c., all of which are specially made for us by the Burt-Packard people, Brockton, Mass., fill the long felt wants in Mayaville's shoe trade. We are daily receiving our fall stock in these lines. If your summer shoes are about worn out and you think it late to buy lightweight footwear we can fit you in the coming style of Fall Shoes. Respectfully,

HECHINGER & CO
LEADERS IN FINE CLOTHING AND SHOES.

THE BEE HIVE.

Newest Silks

—FOR FALL—

With an assortment of over 250 pieces of Silk to choose from you're sure to be suited. Many of 'em come in waist lengths only. The very latest colorings and up-to-date plaids and checks that our own and foreign mills produce you'll find here; and prices are so popularized as to meet all purses. There is a great line of Fancy Silks at 29c. The choicest lot of Taffetas in all shades at 79c, 89c, and 98c; their equal cannot be found in this vicinity. And then there are Lebertres and Bengallines at 79c and 89c, and the handsomest of Plaids and Checks from 79c to $1 50.

Pleasing Petticoat Prices.

Particularly pleasing because, quality considered, prices are so much below others. A ready-to-wear Underskirt of Outing Cloth 49c, instead of 75c; one of superior quality Moreen 59c; a great line of Satine Skirts at 79c, worth fully $1; all-wool Petticoat Patterns at 45c, 75c, and 98c; and the very choicest lot of Taffeta Silk Petticoats in changeable and solid colors from $4 95 to $14 95.

SEASONABLE Dress Goods.

That is, allowing you time to have them made into dresses. The elegance of the better dress goods has been proven by dozens of delighted eyes. The unusual prettiness and worthiness of the little-priced stuffs are just as provable. In judging look at these:

AT 37½c.

Covert Cloths in twelve color mixtures, autumn weight, firmly made and fairly worth half a dollar. Cheviots in wonderfully dressy goods that look much like the bigger priced imported goods.

AT 40c., 45c., 50c.

Are finer Cheviots and fancy weaves, in handsome styles and colors that might fairly be classed among more aristocratic materials. But we'll only hint to tempt a look at these popular fabrics.
